

STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2020 No. 1435

EXITING THE EUROPEAN UNION CUSTOMS

The Customs Tariff (Suspension of Import Duty Rates) (EU Exit) Regulations 2020 at 12.28 p.m. on

Made - - - - 15th December 2020
Laid before the House of Commons - - - - 16th December 2020
Coming into force in accordance with regulation 1

The Treasury, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 12(1), 31(6) and (7) and 32(7) and (8) of the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018^{M1}, makes the following Regulations.

The Treasury considers it appropriate, in consequence of, or otherwise in connection with, the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union, that these Regulations come into force on such day as the Treasury may, by regulations under section 52(2) of that Act, appoint.

PART 2

Requests for suspensions

Requests to the Secretary of State

7.—(1) Requests to the Secretary of State for goods to be specified goods for the purposes of these Regulations may be made in writing by any person (“the applicant”) in an application the form of which is approved by the Secretary of State^{M5}.

(2) Applications containing requests under paragraph (1) must be sent to the Secretary of State by the applicant in such manner, and before the end of such period, as the Secretary of State determines for the purposes of this regulation.

(3) The Secretary of State—

- (a) must, no later than—
 - (i) two weeks after the date on which an application form was received by the Secretary of State, acknowledge receipt of the request in writing to the applicant; and
 - (ii) four weeks after the date on which the period determined by the Secretary of State in accordance with paragraph (2) expires [^{F4}or, where that is not reasonably practicable, as soon as practicable thereafter], publish a notice providing information about all requests received and invite objections from any United Kingdom business to the goods to which the requests relate being specified goods for the purposes of these Regulations;

- (b) may require, from the applicant in relation to a request such further information in connection with, or evidence in support of, the request as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.

(4) Objections to a request made under paragraph (1) must be sent to the Secretary of State in writing before the end of such period as is specified in the notice published by the Secretary of State under paragraph (3)(a)(ii).

(5) The Secretary of State may stay consideration of a request—

- (a) until the expiry of the period for making objections specified in the notice published by the Secretary of State under paragraph (3)(a)(ii);
- (b) pending receipt of any further information or evidence requested from the applicant in relation to a request by the Secretary of State under paragraph (3)(b); or
- (c) if, and for such period as, the Secretary of State remains satisfied that a valid objection under paragraph (3)(a)(ii) exists to the goods to which a request relates being specified goods.

(6) A request made under paragraph (1) may be withdrawn by the applicant in relation to the request at any time before the date on which the Secretary of State makes a recommendation to the Treasury in relation to the request under regulation 9.

PART 3

Exceptional duty suspensions

Recommendations about exceptional duty suspensions

10.—(1) The Secretary of State may—

- (a) in the absence of a request received under regulation 7(1); and
- (b) in the circumstances described in paragraph (2), recommend to the Treasury that goods of a particular commodity code are to be specified goods for the purposes of section 12(1) of the Act and of these Regulations.

(2) The circumstances described in this paragraph are where the Secretary of State is satisfied—

- (a) that—
 - (i) the goods concerned are not produced domestically; or
 - (ii) a suitable alternative to those goods is not available on the domestic market;
- (b) that the measure is necessary to—
 - (i) maintain the supply of food or other finished products to the domestic market; or
 - (ii) mitigate price increases for consumers and United Kingdom businesses that are reliant on imports; or
- (c) that other exceptional circumstances exist in which the application of an exceptional duty suspension rate is necessary in respect of those goods.

(3) Part 2 of these Regulations does not apply for the purposes of a recommendation made by the Secretary of State under this regulation.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Part 1 contains general provisions.

Regulation 3 contains a description of “specified goods” for the purposes of the Regulations by reference to the Suspensions of Import Duty Rates Document which lists the goods that are subject to a suspension of the applicable import duty rate. The Tariff Suspension Document Version 1.0 dated 10th December 2020 is published by the Department for International Trade and is available at: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/customs-vat-and-excise-uk-transition-legislation-from-1-january-2021> and a hard copy is available to view free of charge by contacting the Department of International Trade, 3 Whitehall Place, London SW1A 2AW. A person unable to access this document electronically can arrange access to a hard copy, while government advice on social distancing and unnecessary travel applies, by telephoning the Department for International Trade on 020 7215 5000.

Regulation 4 makes provision in respect of the duty suspension rate that is to apply to specified goods the commodity codes for which are listed in the Suspensions of Import Duty Rates Document. Regulation 5 provides “specified period” is the period during which the duty suspension rate described in regulation 4 applies to specified goods. Regulation 6 makes provision for extending the specified period.

Part 2 contains provision about requests for suspensions, the consideration of such requests and recommendations made by the Secretary of State to the Treasury about such requests.

Regulation 7 makes provision for the making of requests to the Secretary of State by a person for goods to be specified goods for the purpose of the Regulations. Provision is made for acknowledging receipt of such requests, for publicising them and inviting objections to them from businesses in the United Kingdom, and for the circumstances in which consideration of requests may be stayed by the Secretary of State. Provision is also made for a request to be withdrawn by the person who made it before such time as they are considered by the Secretary of State.

Regulation 8 sets out the process for considering requests made to the Secretary of State under regulation 7(1) including the applicable exceptions to the circumstances in which the Secretary of State is required to consider such requests and provision for the circumstances in which such requests may be rejected. Regulation 9 makes provision for the Secretary of State to make recommendations to the Treasury in connection with any requests made under regulation 7(1) which the Secretary of State is obliged to consider.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2026. This version of this Instrument contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: The Customs Tariff (Suspension of Import Duty Rates) (EU Exit) Regulations 2020 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 31 July 2026. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Part 3 makes provision for the Secretary of State to make recommendations to the Treasury about the application of a duty suspensions rate to goods of a particular commodity code in the absence of a request under regulation 7(1).

Regulation 10 provides that a duty suspension rate can only apply in relation to specified goods in the exceptional circumstances described in paragraph (2) of that regulation.

Part 4 contains modifications to section 12(1) of the Act and these Regulations in respect of the Crown Dependencies. The modifications made by regulation 11 and the Schedule are necessary having regard to the establishment of the customs union between the United Kingdom, the Bailiwick of Guernsey, the Isle of Man and the Bailiwick of Jersey.

This instrument is one of a group of instruments covered by a single overarching full Tax Information and Impact Note (TIIN). The TIIN primarily focuses on the Customs Tariff (Establishment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2020 and will be available electronically in due course at: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/tax-information-and-impact-notes-tiins>. A hard copy will be held and available for viewing free of charge at the Department of International Trade, 3 Whitehall Place, London SW1A 2AW. A person unable to access this document electronically can arrange access to a hard copy, while government advice on social distancing and unnecessary travel applies, by telephoning the Department for International Trade on 020 7215 5000.

An Explanatory Memorandum is being published on the same website. There is no significant impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies as this instrument broadly replicates the effect of European Union legislation.
